day's rates, but do not maintain the extreme prices of the day. So large and sudden an advance naturally tempts buyers to realize their profits, with the usual result upon prices. The market of the quotations was steady.

We understand that the Congressional duties of the Hon. F. Clark, together with his interest in Rochester, make it imperative upon him to decline the Presidency of the Third National Bank.

Gold closed at 132 1/2. The speculative excitement in gold is on the wane, and at each report of military success, there is an abundance of sellers.

The opening of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad was celebrated yesterday by an excursion on the Road from Albany as far as completed—a distance of about 35 miles. This, says the Evening Journal, was an event eminently worthy of commemoration.
